TALKING ROCK NEWS

July 2014 Town of Talking Rock ~ P. O. Box 893 ~ Phone-Fax 706-253-5515 ~ E Mail totrga@gmail.com

==========

90YEARS YOUNG: The Talking Rock Town Council recognized Ms. Jessie Lee Godfrey as their oldest resident, at a recent Town Council Meeting and presented her with a plaque and well wishes. Ms. Godfrey turned 90 Sunday June 1, 2014, family and friends gathered at her home to honor and wish her Happy Birthday!!

YARD SALES: Talking Rock has been having yard sales the first Saturday of each month. We have invited the community to join in with the town. Make your plans to take part next month, August 2, 2014.

HERITAGE DAY Plans are well under way to hold our 19th Annual Heritage Days Festival October 18-19, 2014. We have added something new this year. We will be selling $1.00 tickets on a chance to win a $200.00 gift card (VISA/MA); the drawing will be held at 5 PM on Sunday October 19, 2014. You do not have to be present to win.

NEIGHBORHOOD W ATCH

Let's remember to report any activity that may appear to be unusual or seem suspicious, by calling 911 or Pickens County Sheriff office at 706-253-8901.

OPEN HOUSE AT SCHOOL July 31. 2014

The Talking Rock Teaching Museum Schoolhouse will be having an open house for the county residents. The event is sponsored by Pickens Art and Cultural Alliance (PACA) Thursday July 31, from 6:00 – 8:00 PM, light summer time refreshments will be served. Make you plans now to attend!!

HISTORICAL SOCIETY: A historical society is being formed to begin work on the history of our town. Espey Smith will head up the committee. If you have any old photos or stories about Talking Rock from the past, this is your chance to share them with the committee. We would like to start a small museum in the caboose; any help you can give would be greatly appreciated.

PLAQUE IN HONOR OF N. C. LOW, JR

The Town Council is making plans to place a marble plaque on the front of the town hall, in appreciation, memory and honor of N. C. Low, Jr. for his long term volunteer service to the Town of Talking Rock.

PRAYER CORNER

Please remember the Wells Family in the passing of Susan Wells after a long struggle with cancer. The Solomon Family with the passing of Nellie, age 95. Our folks with health problems, Helen Low, Johnnie Fortner, Betty Burrell and Espey Smith.
